Celebrating NAIDOC Week:

Keep the Fire Burning! Blak, Loud & Proud

This year, the National NAIDOC Committee selected the powerful theme, Keep the Fire Burning! Blak, Loud & Proud. This theme pays tribute to First Nations culture's enduring strength and vitality, with fire symbolising the deep connection to Country, community, and the rich traditions that define Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

Our NAIDOC Week celebrations were truly special, driven by the voices and ideas of our Marrung students who shaped how we celebrated as a school. None of this would have been possible without the incredible support and enthusiasm of our staff. Many people contributed to making the week such a success and the 'Kick Like Buddy' and 'Shoot Like Patty' competitions were standout events, along with prizes for the winners.

By Friday afternoon, the joy and pride were palpable as students headed into the weekend after a very successful and proud first week of term. Continuing to foster and build strong connections for our Marrung students across all areas of the school is vital to supporting their engagement and success. Thank you to our school community for your continued commitment to showing up and Keeping the Fire Burning.

Model United Nations

Cranbourne Secondary College had the privilege of hosting a remarkable Model United Nations event, bringing together students from across our district. Our students proudly represented the college, joining forces with peers from other schools to tackle some of the most pressing global issues in the style of the United Nations.

Throughout the day, our students engaged in thoughtful discussions, showcased their diplomacy skills and collaborated on crafting innovative solutions to real-world challenges. It was inspiring to see their dedication, teamwork, and leadership as they navigated complex negotiations and sought to make a positive impact on a global scale.

We are incredibly proud of our students for their hard work, enthusiasm, and commitment to this event. They demonstrated the values of Cranbourne Secondary College and left a lasting impression on everyone involved.

Moderation

After the Common Assessment Task (CAT) period, all staff come together to assess the impact of their teaching. We review the CAT results to determine whether students have met the expected outcomes and to explore how the curriculum can be further enhanced to support students in achieving their best. Students are also invited to these sessions to share insights from their personal experiences. It was wonderful to see both staff and students actively engaged in the moderation sessions, discussing learning sequences and CATs. Although students were only invited to attend one session per day, some chose to participate in both, finding the experience highly rewarding. Staff received positive feedback from students who appreciated the opportunity to be involved. A big thank you to everyone who contributed to this collaborative effort.

High ability students

Jacob Padilla, our High-Ability Coordinator, has launched the Alfred Nobel Society, a program dedicated to our Year 8 high-ability students. This initiative fosters a community of high achievers, providing the resources and support necessary for academic excellence. The program highlights our commitment to nurturing intellectual growth, creativity, and innovation across various disciplines.

During their first meeting, the Year 8 high-ability students were welcomed with a gift of a fountain pen and notebook, and their achievements were formally recognised. The details of the course were also outlined during the session. Students can look forward to participating in upcoming incursions and excursions.

Year 9 City Experience

Year 9 Students Explore Melbourne's Iconic Landmarks

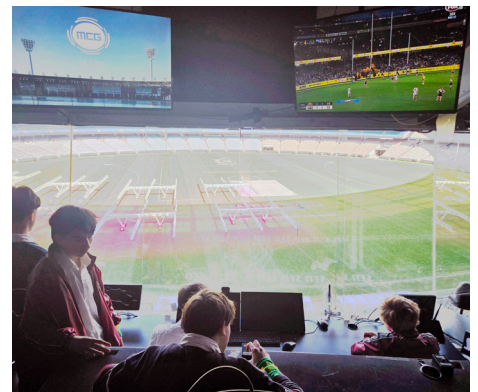

This term, our Year 9 students embarked on 2 exciting excursions to Melbourne City, where they had the opportunity to visit some of the city's most iconic attractions.

The first excursion was to the National Gallery of Victoria (NGV), where students were inspired by the vast collection of art from Australian and international artists. The exhibits sparked thoughtful discussions and allowed students to explore different forms of artistic expression. Then the students ascended the Eureka Skydeck, where they marvelled at the breathtaking views of Melbourne from the southern hemisphere's highest observation deck. The panoramic views provided a perfect end to a day filled with learning and exploration.

The second excursion started with a visit to the Melbourne Cricket Ground (MCG), where students learned about the rich history of Australian sports and enjoyed a behind-the-scenes tour of the legendary stadium. Next, they strolled through the tranquil Royal Botanical Gardens, taking in the beautiful landscapes and learning about the diverse plant species that thrive in this urban oasis. The experience was educational and refreshing, perfectly blending nature and history.

These excursions enhanced the students' appreciation of Melbourne's rich cultural and natural heritage while also helping them create unforgettable memories. We are excited to see the projects they will develop following their final city excursions.

Ms Dickson
Year 9 Leader of Learning

The best part of the excursion was going on the Eureka Tower and getting a full 360 view of the Melbourne city and the suburban areas, looking down from the walkout deck gave me the chills but was fun.

The National Gallery of Victoria was pretty cool for some people who are into art but wasn't really for me however I did find the artwork really cool and the excursion was pretty fun but would've been better if I was with more of my friends

Supportive Friends – Year 7

Earlier in the term, our year 7 cohort spent a full day participating in the Supportive Friends program. Supportive Friends focuses on three aspects of relationships:

- My relationship with myself
- My social self
- My online self

Supportive Friends encourages students to talk about what it means to be a good friend, including the relationship with us. Students learn how to tune in and manage their self-talk and develop a growth mindset.

Students worked together to discuss and resolve issues within their groups, through visual references, imaginative tools, and role play. This encourages deeper discussions and provides a greater understanding of the learning outcomes. The year 7 group thoroughly enjoyed the Supportive Friends Program and were very excited to finish the program with a pizza lunch celebration.

Bully Zero - Year 7 - 9

As a college, we are committed to providing education and support to ensure bullying is responded to and addressed accordingly. We are thrilled to share that all year 7,8 and 9 students recently participated in an amazing full day workshop on bullying. The session was not only informative but also highly engaging, and our students had a fantastic time.

Bully Zero is an organisation who offer great in school workshops, the Bully Zero workshops address the different types of bullying, provide strategies to help students assess and respond to bullying and address cyberbullying and online safety. Our year 7, 8 & 9 cohorts attended a full day workshop on addressing and responding to bullying.

Bully Zero's evidence-based-practice model consists of research, practitioner wisdom, family experience and insights, enquiry, application, analysis, feedback and much more. Bully Zero programs have been created in conjunction with educators and reviewed by peers, psychologists, and counsellors, which is an ongoing development process. Bully Zero is endorsed as a Trusted eSafety Provider by the eSafety Commissioner.

During the workshop, students learned valuable skills and strategies to help them recognize, prevent, and address bullying. The positive feedback we've received reflects the effectiveness of the workshop and the enthusiasm of our students.

We are confident that these newly acquired tools will contribute to a safer and more supportive environment for everyone.

Canine Comprehension – Year 7

A select group of Year 7 students are participating in the Canine Comprehension program. Throughout the Canine program, they teach students to develop an awareness and understanding of verbal and non-verbal communication indicators. They work with hands, such as tone of voice, body language, facial gestures, plus vocal conversations. In a recent session, the students were responsible for setting up an obstacle course. Students played a hide and seek game with Marley as well as learning how to give Marley instructions. In this session, Marley was able to jump up for a treat, this was great new learning for our students and new learning for Marley.

Staff Uniting (Komak) Staff Professional Learning

All staff were invited to attend a cultural education session aimed at enhancing our ability to support students and their families from diverse cultural backgrounds. This session provided valuable insights and practical strategies to help us create a more inclusive and supportive environment for our Afghan school community. We look forward to continuing our partnership with Uniting and offering more cultural awareness sessions to staff.

Wellbeing Committee

We are proud to announce that earlier this term, our Wellbeing Committee members were presented with badges by acting principal Ms Gilchriest in recognition of their dedication and hard work. These badges symbolise their commitment to fostering a positive and supportive environment within our school.

The initial idea for badges was generated by Will Dunlop (Year 7), and it was fantastic to see this proposal become a reality. The badges are not only a way of strengthening students' sense of belonging and ownership but are also great reward and recognition for the hard work and commitment the students have put in.

The Wellbeing Committee plays a crucial role in promoting student voice and inclusion, their efforts have made a significant impact, and this recognition is well-deserved.

Congratulations to the following wellbeing committee member students who were presented with badges:

- Will - Year 7
- Tamika - Year 7
- Rylan - Year 9
- Suhas - Year 10
- Caitlyn - Year 11
- Marcus - Year 12
